Teachers reject latest offer

—Further meeting could avert strike vote

By Peter Crosby

More than 240 teachers in the County of Mountain View, part of the Bow Valley School Authorities Association, are in a position to call a strike vote after rejecting the latest contract offer.

However, County Commissioner Herman Epp said he didn't expect a strike vote to be taken until a further meeting between the two sides. That meeting is scheduled for Jan. 9.

Local Alberta Teachers Association president Beth Worsfold confirmed Monday that a strike vote would not be taken until after the Jan. 9 meeting, if necessary.

The two sides are less than one per cent apart on a new one-year contract for the 1991-92 school year. The last contract expired in September.

Trustee Ken Turnbull who represents the County of Mountain View board of education at the bargaining table, told last week's board meeting that the teachers broke off talks after rejecting the association's offer of a 5.2 per cent wage increase. The teachers want 5.6 per cent.

The 5.2 per cent offer would raise the salary of a teacher with 11 years experience to $50,500 annually, a $2,496 raise, said Mr. Turnbull. In addition, 75 per cent of Alberta Health Care, dental and extended health care premiums would be paid on the teacher's behalf.

The contract also offered increases in principals' and vice-principals' allowances, and increased pay for substitute teachers.

"It's very disappointing to go through seven months of bargaining and then find ourselves in this position, about $100 apart," said Mr. Turnbull.

He believed the offer was generous. "When you see agriculture and the oil industry in their current dilemma, I think teachers have trouble justifying their need for more," he added.

The Bow Valley association bargains for 10 school jurisdictions, representing more than 1,000 teachers in southern Alberta.

It's Christmas. It's the season of peace and joy, goodwill and love. It's happy faces and family celebrations, wonderful food and music, happy memories. Not everyone will have all of these lovely things, but I pray that many will and I want to be told about some of them. Must we always hear about the sad, the mean and the ugly? Wouldn't it be uplifting for us to know that there are good and happy people in the world? Must we be continually told that slime is normal, crime is rampant, and grime has entered into every heart? Wouldn't it be lovely if we had an ideal to strive for rather than something squalid that we must learn to accept?

I want to hear a story about a baby. I don't care where the baby is born or what his race is but I want this baby healthy and welcomed by two, loving, excited parents who are prepared to care for him from their own resources. This happens a lot you know.

I want a story about a woman, preferably one with small kids, whose car breaks down on the highway and a long haired teenager or a burly truckdriver or maybe a guy with a white beard and a red suit, stops, helps her and refuses payment.

I want to hear about grown women who remember their Dads as nurturing, protecting, loving, important parts of their lives. My Dad was one of those. When I was a little kid I knew that if Jesus were to return to earth he would come and ask my Dad to be one of his disciples. I didn't think, maybe, this would happen. I knew it would happen. Because Dad was the most wise and honest and trustworthy person in the world. There have to be thousands of women who remember their Dad this way. My Dad died last July and in my deepest heart I know that he is now being consulted about problems in the Heavenly Kingdom.

Tell me about a marriage that has never had a blow struck in anger, never been endangered by an affair or a lie or petty cruelty. There are millions of them out there, why do we never hear about them?

Somewhere there has to be an elderly native person who remembers her days in the Mission School with affection and gratitude. Someone who was treated well and feels that she gained something from her education.

There have to be millions of Catholics who love and trust their priests, lawyers and politicians from fine old families that have never had a major scandal. Somewhere there is an Indian band council that is progressive and enthused and winning the fight against depression and hopelessness. Show me some professional sports people who are moral and healthy, drug and AIDS free. Introduce the lawyers and bank managers who are honest and helpful. All these people exist. They actually form the majority. Couldn't we hear about them? Especially at Christmas?

I want to hear about teachers who go the extra mile, nurses who ease the way and cheer on their patients. I want to get the news about doctors who care and listen, sick kids who get well, bad jobs that get better, good things happening to good people. What the heck, maybe good things happening to not so good people and improving their outlook.

How about good neighbors, caring friends, brave little kids and wise old grannies. How about in-laws who actually love each other, small businesses that succeed, recovering alcoholics who are sober this Christmas, foreign students invited home for the holidays, children who care for their elderly parents, the husband who skips lunch to buy something special for his wife, little kids making secret presents, a brother fixing his sister's old car, a sister who sits up late to finish a sweater. I want to hear about functional families who love and support each other.

Somewhere there is a town that doesn't need a food bank but supports a neighboring town just because they feel like it and it's Christmas. Somewhere an endangered species made a gain this year.

There is good news. There are happy families. There is still honesty and truth and trust and love. Merry Christmas.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

From the Desk of...

DONALD G. WATT
His Worship, Mayor of Didsbury

The Christmas Season is fast approaching, take time to reflect upon the humble but grand birth of an infant in a manger in Bethlehem and the promises of peace, hope and joy which accompanied that birth.

Too often we fail to embrace the beauty and significance of the celebration that is Christmas, caught up in the hectic pace of the season's festivities.

The year ahead will be a dramatic one for our Country and our Communities, as has the one just past, it will test each of us. It is our hope that this year you may find the real joy and peace that has been promised, in your friends, families and business.

With these thoughts in mind, I would like, personally, and on behalf of Council and Staff of the Town of Didsbury, to extend to you and yours our wishes for a very special Christmas and a Happy, Prosperous New Year!

Fire snuffed at hay plant

By Peter Crosby

A potentially disastrous fire last week at Didsbury's new hay processing plant was averted thanks to the quick actions of plant workers and fire-fighters.

Didsbury fire chief Gary Halfyard said "quick thinking" on the part of three employees who immediately closed the doors when the fire started shortly before 3 a.m. Wednesday, kept the fire from spreading.

"There was a lot of smoke when we got there but the guys did a heck of a job in containment," said Halfyard.

As a result, damage was limited to under $5,000, only a few bales of hay, said Halfyard.

Plant manager Ian Hopfe said the fire started in some hay dust on the floor in the room where the plant compressor is located.

Damage was minimal, he said, and the plant was "up and running again within eight hours."

The plant, operated by the special products division of U.S.-based Midwest Agri, opened the last week of November in the former Didsbury Auction Market on Didsbury's eastern boundary. It employs 20 people.

As a precaution, fire departments in Olds and Carstairs were also called by the Didsbury department for mutual aid.

Didsbury firefighters also received another call later in the week, going to the Mountain View Health Care Centre shortly after 7 a.m. on Friday. The call turned out to be a false alarm.

Second condo project

By Peter Crosby

A Calgary developer plans to turn a nine-acre lot at the southeast corner of 15th

Avenue and 23rd Street in Didsbury into a condominium village for the over-50 crowd.

Gladys Krueger, a former Didsbury resident who has designed and developed similar projects on Canada's west coast for the past 10 years, said she sees "tremendous potential for something like this."

A total of 57 condominium homes will be built. Krueger said she hopes to get the project started in March and be completed before the end of 1992.

Each of the homes will have two bedrooms and will come in a variety of floor plans, ranging from 1124 to 1451 square feet.

Plans call for a clubhouse to be built at the centre of the development, featuring a dance floor, lounge, recreation area and fireplace.

"We hope to be into pre-sales in the new year," said Krueger.

A development application has been approved by the town and is now before the public, pursuant to town bylaws. Appeals may be filed up to Dec. 24.

Meanwhile, the developers

Hong Kong visit successful

Local businessmen Roy Sackett and Gord Reimer returned last week from a visit to Hong Kong where they travelled as part of Environment Minister Ralph Klein's delegation of 40 Alberta businessmen looking for investment and trade opportunities.

Mr. Sackett, of Crossfield, said he was successful in firming up financial arrangements for the proposed Rosebud Links golf course in Didsbury. He also convinced a Hong Kong contractor/developer to visit the Didsbury/Crossfield area later this month to investigate business opportunities.

Mr. Reimer said he was successful in attracting interest for his cement mixers.

"Everything I found out about the golf money was favorable," said Mr. Sackett. "I feel very positive."

Helpers need toys, names

Christmas Helpers in Didsbury still need your help in making this a merry Christmas for everyone in town.

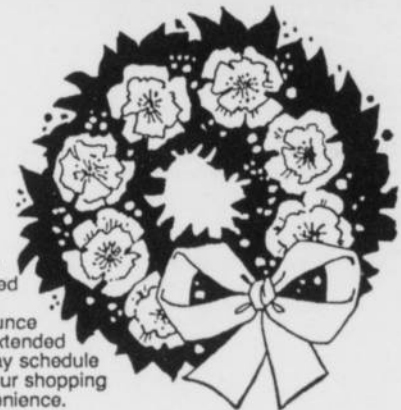

"We need toys," says coordinator Linda Sirr. They can be dropped off at the Post Office.

Non-perishable food items can be deposited in hampers at Didsbury's three major food outlets. Cash donations can be made by contacting Laurie at the Didsbury Missionary Church, 335-3629.

"We've received a lot of cash donations so far," said Sirr.

Christmas Helpers has also received the names of 49 people who will need hampers this year. Additional names can be added by contacting Linda, 335-2378 or Laurie, 335-3629.

Christmas gifts for all

By Peter Crosby

One week to Christmas Eve. "Whoa there Vixen." Time for Santa to preview some of his gift bag.

Let's see what he's got here.

Better start with the big guy first. That's Brian Mulroney. The prime minister. Santa hasn't quite made up his mind. He's narrowed the choices to (a.) a bar of soap, (b.) a Lone Ranger mask or (c.) a week in Estevan (for a taste of reality).

For Preston Manning, an election.

For Herman Epp, Bob Armstrong and Terry Leslie, a regional dump.

For Don Watt, a weekend getaway in Olds.

For Sheila Copps, a muzzle, a bar of soap.

For Ray Speaker, membership in at least one more political party.

For the Calgary police department tac-team, life-size wanted posters.

For Calgary Stampede, a Grey Cup.

For Ben Johnson, steroids.

For County of Mountain View teachers, $100.

For Stan Laveck, another brush-cut craze.

For Tee-Jay Johnston, longjohns.

For Barry Valteau, a bigger band budget.

For Calgary Flames, a tie.

For Don Getty, mandatory retirement.

For Gary Halfyard, a new fire truck.

For Teddy Jones, a new home.

For Lance Plewis, a new swimming pool.

For John Bates, reduced taxes.

For the Didsbury Winter Festival, snow.

For Doug Gilmour, a crying towel.

For Ramblers' goalie Marty Krebs, extra padding.

Is that it Santa?

Until next year, you say.

Well, don't forget all the good little people who bring such joy this time of year.

And those in hospitals and nursing homes. The lonely. The hungry. Don't forget them.

If Santa happens to spread himself a little thin, it'll be up to the rest of us to pick up the slack, look out for neighbors and friends.

Keep the Christmas spirit alive.

Oke enjoyed working for education

Dear Editor:

May I take this opportunity to thank the electors of Didsbury for the privilege of representing them on the Board of Education the past two years and for seven years prior to that.

I have accepted a position as Academic Dean of Rocky Mountain College to begin January 1.

RMC is Mountain View Bible College moved to Calgary. As a result Janette and I have moved and I am therefore no longer eligible to represent you.

It has been a great delight to work for the advancement of education in our County.

Serving on the Board of Education is a privilege, challenge, and great learning experience. I would urge anyone interested to give serious thought to running in the next election. You'll have a chance to impact education in our County for the good!

Sincerely,
Edward Oke

More worry than PM's language

Dear Editor,

Well, I woke up this past Thursday morning and as usual, turned on the National News. There in front of my eyes were two Members of Parliament swearing that Brian Mulroney swore.

Next I saw Brian swear that he didn't swear.

All this broadcast across Canada. We must look really mature to the modern world.

I guess if I was in Mulroney's shoes right now I'd probably do a lot of swearing and maybe a lot of praying too.

I've sworn a lot the past few years. Everytime I see the intelligence of officials of the government running this country of ours I swear a lot. To say the least, I think we have a lot more to worry about than whether or not Brian Mulroney uses bad language.

We know one thing for sure, again somebody's lying.

Light sentence for pilot unfair

Dear Editor,

Re: John Everett Page found guilty of dangerous flying causing the death of John Henry Monsma, June 14, 1991 on Hwy. 582 East of Didsbury, Alberta.

Page received a sentence of one day in jail as opposed to a possible 14 years in jail. He also received 15 months probation and 100 hours of community service work which shall be in the area of instruction and communication about aircraft and public safety. I feel this is like putting a child molester in a day care centre.

This light sentence does not teach John Everett Page any responsibility for this or any other possible accident in the future. Do you think this is fair?

A large group of people are upset and disgusted at the courts for handing down this kind of sentence.

Many tears have been shed for the loss of John Monsma by many loved ones especially his fiancée Kelly Thompson and the two little boys who cannot understand why John, a family man, could be taken away so suddenly and the guilty party doesn't receive any more than a slap on the hand for the death he caused.

Christmas season is upon us now with one missing from our family circle. John is sadly missed at this time. The question we ask ourselves is: Why is an innocent man dead and the guilty party walking around with little remorse if any?

Christmas special time for reflections

Hon. Roy Brassard, MLA
Olds-Didsbury Constituency

Christmas is a very special time as families gather to celebrate the birth of the Christ child. In doing so, it gives all of us an opportunity to renew family relationships and community friendships as well. It is indeed a magical time of year.

Seniors play a special role at Christmas since they are generally considered the keepers of many of the family traditions. Often they are the focal point for family gatherings and since many seniors can remember a time when Christmas was far less commercial, they often remind us that Christmas means much more than expensive presents.

I'm sure each of us can remember one very special Christmas in our past that stands out above all others. It's almost certain that our parents or grandparents played a very significant role in that memory. In fact, parents and grandparents have been playing a very significant role in most of our past—and in our future as well. I guess that's why I am so very proud of my new title—that of Minister Responsible for Seniors. I have other responsibilities as well—AADAC—The Family Life and Substance Abuse Foundation—The Premier's Council on the Status of Persons with Disabilities—for Mitchener Center—and other programs—but it has been in working with seniors themselves that I have found the greatest satisfaction.

Our senior population is growing at a faster rate than any other segment of our population—three times that of Albertans under 65 and this is going to provide all of us with some very significant challenges. But challenge, isn't new to this generation, it is. They have already faced more change in their lifetime than any generation before them. And I know that we will handle the future challenges in the same way—by working together as families—as neighbours—as communities—as a nation.

That's the reason we formed the consultation group with 25 agencies representing approximately 50,000 seniors, and the eleven departments who provide the programs and services to them. It was very obvious last spring that we needed to talk more—to consult with those who were affected by changes to our programs, and we're doing just that! It's our intention to expand this consultation into a complete review and discussion of all factors impacting on seniors in this province culminating in a major Provincial Gerontological Conference in the fall of 1992.

We are already currently spending $1.2 billion on the most comprehensive selection of programs for seniors anywhere in Canada and my appointment has brought a strong focus on these policies, programs and services for older Albertans. There is no question that we have some challenging work ahead of us. But I am also very confident that 1992 will be a very rewarding year for us all.

Toward that end it is my sincere wish that you have a wonderful holiday filled with good friends and happy times. May the miracle of Christmas inspire you with its hope, promise and love through the coming year.

On behalf of your government, our Premier, Don Getty and myself as Minister Responsible for Seniors, I wish you all a very Merry Christmas.

Wildrose MP

The Minister of Justice, Kim Campbell has announced Legislation to amend the Criminal Code (Sexual Assault).

The purpose of this Bill is to protect the victim of a sexual assault from unnecessarily revealing his or her past sexual history in court while upholding the rights of the accused to a fair trial.

On Aug. 22, the Supreme Court of Canada struck down Section 276 of the Criminal Code. Known as the "Rape Shield" Provision. This section protected victims from disclosing their sexual history during a sexual assault trial except in three narrow cases. The law must take into account today's reality of violence against women. These amendments are a first step in a major review of sexual assault laws. They are a clear message that such violence is not tolerated.

The Bill sets strict guidelines that must be met to admit past sexual history as evidence. It clearly outlines what procedures must be followed to admit this evidence and defines consent to sexual activity.

Guidelines of the past sexual history of the complainant with the accused or with any other person cannot be used at a trial: (1) To suggest that the complainant is more likely to have consented to the activity, or is less worthy of belief; (2) Unless the judge finds, using a legal test, that the advantage of using the evidence outweigh the disadvantages; and (3) Until a list of factors, listed in the Bill, are considered by the judge.

The Bill spells out procedures that must be followed to admit past sexual history evidence at a trial: (1) An application must be made in writing by the accused or on the accused's behalf. The judge will consider it without the jury or public present. He or she will then hold a hearing—without jury or public—to determine if the evidence is admissible. (2) The judge's reasons to admit the evidence (or any part of it) must be recorded, and must show the factors that affected his or her decision.

Consent is defined as "The Voluntary Agreement Of The Complainant To Engage In Sexual Activity." The Bill also outlines cases which do not indicate consent, such as when the complainant is drunk. Further information is available on request.

GOVERNMENT OF ALBERTA

More than 500 at DHS band concert

An estimated crowd of over 500 people spent a Sunday afternoon thoroughly enjoying fine food and music.

The occasion was the annual Didsbury High School Christmas band dinner/concert in the Westglen School gymnasium, Dec. 8.

Performing under the very able direction of Todd Klein, three different high school bands gave their renditions of a variety of Christmas arrangements as well as other numbers. The skill and enthusiasm of these young musicians speaks well for the local high school music program.

The afternoon started with a delicious roast beef meal prepared by volunteers from the Didsbury Schools Band Parents Society. Dinner music was provided by two very competent groups. First, a flute quartet entertained the audience with a number of festive songs and were followed by the high school jazz choir under the direction of Jason Valleau. Although only very recently formed, this group delighted the crowd with their very lively offering of a mixture of seasonal arrangements.

The fact that these young people use their spare time to sing for fun is especially heart warming. The youthful talent and enthusiasm of the director infected the choir members to the delight of a very appreciative audience.

Master of ceremonies, Barry Valleau, who recently won the Alberta Band Director of the Year Award, gave credit to Mr. Klein for excellence in guiding his students to this level of competence. Ian Taylor, principal of Didsbury High School, welcomed the audience and gave deserved recognition to performers, organizers and volunteers.

The concert presented a picture of community harmony and co-operation which is the envy of many communities. The number of parents, teachers and students involved demonstrated how to produce a first-class event. As long as that spirit remains, we know that our educational future is secure.

MAKE YOUR HOME SAFE THIS HOLIDAY

Have fun, but keep fire safety in mind:

- Put a lid on cooking oil fires
- Avoid smoking in bed or while impaired
- Keep matches, lighters and candles away from children
- Test your smoke alarms
- Be safe with electricity and home heating
- In case of fire, get out, stay out and call for help

Have a fire-safe holiday!

Taking on new college post in Calgary

Oke resigns school board seat

By Peter Crosby

Dr. Edward Oke, citing a move to Calgary where he will serve as the first academic dean of Rocky Mountain College, resigned his seat last week on the County of Mountain View board of education.

Dr. Oke, long associated with Mountain View Bible College in Didsbury, will take up his new position in January.

Mountain View Bible College will close at the end of the current school year and move to Calgary where it will amalgamate with Hillcrest Christian College of Medicine Hat to form Rocky Mountain Bible College.

Edward Oke

Dr. Oke served on the board of education since his election in 1989. He was chairman the first two years and had recently been elected vice-chairman for 1991-92. He had earlier served on the board for seven years.

In a letter to The Review (Please see Page 4), Dr. Oke said he had enjoyed his association with the board and in furthering the interests of education in this county.

A graduate of Mountain View Bible College, he has served that institution as academic dean, president and teacher.

His resignation leaves two vacancies on the board of education. Another urban trustee, Gerd Andres of Olds, resigned earlier this year because of a move to another community too.

Board chairman Dave Derksen said the board had decided against holding by-elections to fill the positions because under the rules, the board can function with up to two vacancies during the last year of its mandate.

Election of a new board will take place in October of next year.

Trustee Joe Henze of Sundre was elected vice-chairman at last week's meeting.

ACC presents cattlemen's award

The Alberta Cattle Commission presented the 1991 Distinguished Cattlemen's Award to Bert Hargrave of Walsh during the organization's annual general meeting.

The award was created to honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the industry. Hargrave is the third recipient of the award which is presented from time to time to acknowledge special industry friends.

Hargrave has been involved with the family ranch all of his life. He served 12 years as a member of Parliament and worked tirelessly to represent the interests of his constituents. Hargrave opposed supply management for the beef industry; played an important role in the Crow debate; worked with the cattle industry to develop a bill to create an effective meat import act; and sponsored a private members' bill condemning rustling which was passed. He was heavily involved with trade issues and worked to help bring changes to the grading system in the early '70s.

Hargrave is a past president of the Western Stock Grower's Association and Canadian Cattlemen's Association. His other accomplishments and awards are many and varied.

The ACC also recognized Harry Gordon of Hanna at the annual meeting. Gordon was thanked for his leadership and support over the years.

Gordon was actively involved with the establishment of the Alberta Cattle Commission, served on the provisional board and later became chairman (1974-75).

A Letter To Santa

Dear Santa:

My Dad's a farmer. You know, one of the noble kind. He works hard and long to grow the grain that goes to feed mankind.

But Santa something's wrong and I don't know what. But Santa my Daddy told my Mom last night that the future looks fornaught. It's the EEC whatever that is) and the good ole' USA that my Dad says is causing the mess. But my Dad's he one that's paying the price, hat weighs upon his back.

Santa they say the price of wheat is too low, there's too much in this world. But Santa have they seen the face of the hungry child, on the TV news, as he goes hungry to bed. My Dad's he one that can change his world, for he can grow his bread.

And Santa, my Mom, how proud I am of her. She's Dad's partner in our farm. She's in the fields, and does the books, and still takes care of us. And Dad and I would know not what to do, without her loving touch.

So Santa what I want from you, is a gift for both of them; a world in which they are treated fair and paid for what they do, a world where hunger is a sin and where the farmer grows the food it takes to feed this world and is thanked for it too.

Well Santa you know in this letter to you I planned to ask for toys and such for me, but now it seems unfair. Santa what I'd really like, is a gift to all mankind; the gift of love and of brotherhood as the star of Christ does shine.

Merry Christmas.

Life After Christmas

We shop till we drop. We think we have purchased the most suited gift for everyone on our Christmas list. Then reality--it doesn't fit, the color is terrible, "Mom, I just don't like it." Now what?

Twenty-twenty hindsight would be wonderful. Ask before you purchase. Refunds and exchanges are a privilege not a right. Stores are not required by law to give a refund or even an exchange. Most do to keep you as a happy repeat customer. However, signs reading "All Sales Final" either on the wall or on your cash register tape mean absolutely no refund or exchange.

Several stores I visited last week specified that no refunds or exchanges would be done on Boxing Day.

The wise consumer will keep all gift sales receipts. Label each receipt as to what it was and who received the gift for example, Aunt Lucy's, white sweater. (The smart consumer even remembers where these receipts were put in all the Christmas rush.)

Sales slips and time limits go hand-in-hand. Many stores will only offer refunds and exchanges for a limited number of days. Specify your item as a gift at the time of purchase and the time limited for returning will begin on the date the gift is received.

As a final tip, total all your

Mount View Lodge news

Hi all! It really looks like Christmas now at our Lodge. We have it beautifully decorated. Thanks to our wonderful auxiliary members. We thank them for their work and several Olds business places for the beautiful poinsettia plants which they sent us. After the ladies decorated we had the Dec. Birthday Party in the afternoon. A ladies quartet "The Mother's Four" came and sang for us and the Auxiliary shared their yummy Christmas goodies with us. Those celebrating Dec. birthdays were Mrs. Christensen, Mrs. Dakin, Mrs. Fletch and Mrs. Watkins.

The Evergreen Choir visited us last week and shared some of their Christmas songs with us and we joined them in singing Christmas Carols. We also had a visit from the Olds Boy Scouts and Cubs who also entertained us. Thanks so much.

One afternoon one of our staff members brought over four adorable puppies. They were such fun to watch as they romped around. Thanks Linda!

One day recently we had guests for dinner, Mr. & Mrs. Klatt and Mrs. Evans. Mrs. Klatt often comes to play the piano for us and Mrs. Evans has a weekly Bible study. We were so glad to have you as guests for dinner. Also the U.C.W. came one evening and we had a sing-a-long and a lovely lunch and visit! Thanks ladies. As usual the Catholic ladies came last week for their monthly Bingo and treated us all to Jap oranges after. Our thanks to all of you. By the looks of our calendar the rest of December will be very busy!

The Crib Tournament had the following winners - 1st (a tie) Bea Bishop and Muriel Shanks, 2nd Edie Dakin. Shuffleboard winners were: A Side 1st Dorothy Baird and Doug Burns, 2nd Stan Yewell and Buss Riddell.

B Side 1st Laura Watkins and Hugh Shortt, 2nd Alma Gulbe and Albert Berreth.

The Pool Tournament winners were A Side 1st Stan Yewell, 2nd Phyllis Sande.

B Side 1st Doug Burns, 2nd Ray Luckham.

Our newest residents are Mrs. Christensen and Mrs.

Rosenberger. We welcome you and trust you soon feel "at home."

In hospital we have Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Huber. Get well soon!

As this will be our last "news" before Christmas we take this opportunity to wish all our readers a very safe and happy holiday season. "Merry Christmas one and all."

Christmas bird count takes in Olds

Have you ever stopped to notice the many different species of birds in the Olds area this winter?

If you have, you're not alone. In fact, you'll be in the company of countless other devoted watchers if you join this year's "Christmas Bird Count."

It's all part of a scientific study being done by the Kerrywood Nature Centre and the Medicine River Wildlife Rehab Centre in Red Deer. Wildlife Rehab President Carol Kelly says the information gathered from watchers will be extremely helpful in determining misplaced species potentially in danger. "Every year there seems to be a few more species, like Robins, for example that aren't supposed to be here . . . I don't know if it's part of global warming or what but we like to know which species aren't doing very well here, and why . . . that way we have a record of the patterns being set," Kelly says.

While Kelly will basically collect information from watchers specifically in her area, around central Alberta the Christmas Bird Count, she says, is very widespread. "Bit by bit each year we get more and more people responding to this event . . . bird watching is the fastest growing hobby in North America and any municipality in the province can participate."

The best thing about bird-watching, according to Kelly, is that anyone can take part—young and old alike. "It's the kind of activity that can be as physically demanding as you wish to make it. We have a lot of watchers, for example, that simply enjoy counting the different species landing on their bird feeders outside their kitchen windows."

Kelly says many families enjoy participating in the event by making it into a family nature walk. "It's a good excuse to get out after Christmas and wear off some of that turkey dinner," Kelly adds.

Some of the more common species sighted in the Olds area include: Blue Jays, Gray Jays (also known as Whiskey Jacks), Black Capped Chickadee, Boreal Chickadee, Evening Grosbeaks and Pine Grosbeaks.

Most of the birds included in the bird count for Central Alberta include these, although there are always some surprises. "That's what makes it interesting," Kelly says, "it's a learning experience for us as well."

Entry forms for the Christmas Bird Count can be picked up at either the Medicine River Wildlife Rehab Centre or Red Deer's Kerrywood Nature Centre. Everyone who signs up is invited to attend a potluck supper at the end of the day in Red Deer.

Olds rink going to southern

By Peter Crosby

An Olds rink, just a loss away from elimination, came back on the final day of play, scoring a pair of wins to earn a berth in the men's southern Alberta curling playdowns.

Larry Flessatti and his rink of third Don Braun, second Neil Hammer and lead Gary Richards, defeated an Innisfail rink skipped by Shane Sparks, 4-2 and 9-5 in successive games curled at the Didsbury Curling Club Sunday afternoon.

The results gave Flessatti the Zone J men's championship and the right to advance to southern playdowns scheduled for Airdrie, Jan. 16 to 20.

Five rinks entered the double-knockout competition at the Didsbury club when play started on Friday night.

Heading into Sunday's action, Sparks and his rink of third Wilf Edgar, second Glen Sinclair and lead Ken Munro, needed only a single victory to advance to Airdrie.

But Sparks narrowly missed a takeout of a Flessatti rock on the button, allowing the Olds rink to steal the first game, forcing a second and deciding match.

Zone champions

An Olds rink skipped by Larry Flessatti won the Zone J championship at the Didsbury Curling Club on the weekend and will move on to the men's southern playdowns in Airdrie, Jan. 16 to 20. Left to right, Flessatti, third Don Braun, second Neil Hammer and lead Gary Richards.

Weather helps speed school construction

A return to more seasonable weather recently has meant a speed-up in construction of the new middle school in Olds, County Commissioner Herman Epp told last week's board of education meeting.

"Things had slowed down because of the cold weather earlier and they were about two weeks behind schedule," Mr. Epp said. "Now there's been a shift in gears with the better weather and things are progressing quite satisfactorily."

A scheduled completion date is Aug. 17, 1992, Mr. Epp said.

Students from Grades 5 to 8 are expected to be in the school next Fall.

Early bird winner

Douglas Bird of RR 2 Carstairs is the winner of a $100 gift certificate from Olds Co-op.

Mr. Bird's name was drawn for this prize in the recent early bird subscription contest for The Didsbury Review.

In all, there were eight prizes donated by businesses throughout the County of Mountain View, valued at more than $850.

Other winners are included in this week's issue.

From the Desk of...

TERRY LESLIE
Mayor, Town of Sundre

I extend holiday greetings to all on behalf of the Council and staff of the Town of Sundre. I'm sure we have seen some of you as you pass through town on the way to search the wilderness for the perfect Christmas tree.

In small town rural Alberta, the season is alive with acts of kindness and thoughtfulness, warm greetings on the street, and discussion of plans for the season. There is more care and attention focussed on those who may be ill or down on their luck this year. The family gift secrets may be well kept, and the joys and excitement seen in the faces of children bring out fond memories, and warmth felt on Christmases past.

We know all is not rosy and bright for everyone, and that Christmas can be a very difficult time for many. Our wish to you all is that the new year will bring a positive faith and belief through all of 1992, and that the spirit of the season will sustain you throughout the year.

Have a safe and enjoyable Christmas and a wonderful 1992.

CREMONA/WATER VALLEY NEWS

Gold, Silver news

The monthly potluck supper was well attended, thanks to mild weather and good roads.

The new slate of officers for 1992 is as follows: President - Ted Seeley, Vice President - Alan Reid, Secretary - Jean Seehawer, Treasurer - Romalda Judd.

Many thanks to the outgoing president - Kay Unger, secretary Hazel Robertson and treasurer Charlie Bird for their excellent work in the past year.

Cribbage, whist and carpet bowling are going well.

The next bridge lesson will be on Dec. 19th, the last before Christmas. Bridge will resume Jan. 16th.

Our guest entertainer for the evening was Noreen Olson who read several delightful stories from her book "The Kitchen Table Collection." Many a chuckle was heard in the audience as they looked back with Noreen to the "good old days."

The November birthday tea featured a magician who in real life is Alma Lenminger. Alma lived in Cremona for a number of years and now resides in Calgary. Her costume, her jokes and her wonderful magic acts will long be remembered.

Please note that the next potluck supper will be held January 9th at 6 p.m. This is a change from the regular date which was too soon after the holidays.

A very Merry Christmas to everyone and all the best in the New Year.

Another winner

Jacqueline Ferguson (right) of Didsbury is presented with a $40.00 gift certificate from Sheila Fornier of Hawks Nest Inn Cremona. Jacqueline was one of the winners in The Didsbury Review's early subscription draw.

To the residents of the Village of Cremona as the year of 1991 draws to a close may the Christmas Season be a time of miracles and may all the days of the New Year be bright with joy.

Merry Christmas and very Happy New Year.

CARSTAIRS NEWS

Jackson W.I.

Our Christmas meeting, Dec. 11th, was held at the home of Lita Reid, which was suitably decorated for the occasion.

Joan Foat, our president, welcomed the 12 members, who were present. The roll call was, "How can I make Christmas less commercial?" One member suggested we start with Christmas carols and decorations in December, not October; another suggestion was to use colored newsprint for gift wrapping and one main idea seemed to be not so many gifts and include home crafted gifts in the ones we do give.

The minutes of the November meeting were read and adopted as read. The annual report was also read by Lita and adopted as read. Marie Olson gave the treasurer's report.

For our February "In-House" baking contest we selected for competition an uniced chiffon cake. So everyone --try your baking skills on a chiffon cake!

Joan thanked Noreen Olson, Elma Bird, Lita Reid for reading scripture at our annual Christmas Carol Service. Joan also thanked those who had helped at the Nursing Home Tea.

The Jackson Institute will host Nellie Davie's 80th birthday party at the Gold & Silver Club in Cremona on Feb. 22. The planning committee will be Catharine Reid, Marguerite Krebs, Elma Bird, Darlene Hallett and Alice Van Arnam.

The president of A.W.I., Holly Hallett, presented Alice Van Arnam, with a 20-Year Pin. Twenty years?

As yet, there has been no date set for the District Conference. It will be held in Airdrie if accommodation can be secured.

The Executive Meeting will be held Jan. 7 at 1:30 in order to set the agenda for 1992.

Holly Hallett suggested the Cancer Clinic could use home-baked cookies for the months of July and August. She will deliver them.

Joan Foat introduced us to a Christmas Contest which consisted of re-wording "The Twelve Days of Christmas" from a Hobo's perspective. The members' efforts were read aloud--we are all going to become Ogden Nashes! And then the entries were judged. Catharine Reid won first with Holly Hallett and Kay Unger getting honorable mention. Lita Reid gave a reading entitled, "Will You Make Squares?"

A bountiful Christmas lunch was served by Marie Olson, Noreen Olson and Dot Odell.

The January meeting will be on Jan. 22 at Marie Olson's home with no special roll call.

Christmas Eve musical

"THE GIFT," a dramatic Christmas musical, created and arranged by Dennis and Nan Allen, will be presented at the Didsbury Zion Evangelical Church on Christmas Eve, Dec. 24th, at 7:30 p.m. This musical, under the direction of Mr. Larry Hooper, is a joint venture of the choirs from the Didsbury Missionary and Zion Evangelical churches.

"THE GIFT" is the retelling of the Saviour's birth. It is the story of God's ultimate gift of Love to all mankind and is not only sung about but is also dramatized. It shows not only the beauty of the nativity but also shows the impact that it certainly had on the lives of people who encountered the Newborn King. That dramatic effect of God's gift continues today. That "Good News" was spread throughout Bethlehem and beyond long ago.

Join us as the old story is retold once more through music and drama. Let this wonderful news be a part of your Christmas Eve experience this year.

"THE GIFT" was presented at the Missionary Church on Sunday morning, Dec. 15th. For Christmas Eve the presentation moves to Zion Evangelical Church. Everyone is cordially invited to this annual Christmas Eve musical and candlelight service at 7:30 p.m.

Grizzlys still going strong

Olds Grizzlys won another three games last week to stay within one point of first place Calgary Royals in the Alberta Junior Hockey League standings.

The Grizzlys kept pace with the front-running Royals by winning on the road in Sherwood Park and then scoring a pair of wins on home ice Friday and Saturday.

On Friday, the Grizzlys took care of Sherwood Park for the second time in the week, winning 7-3, and then on Saturday, they defeated with the pesky Lloydminster Blazers 6-3.

Olds has a pair of road games this week, tangling with St. Albert Saints tonight (Dec.

17) and then visiting Calgary for a showdown with the Royals on Thursday.

Coach Chris Stewart said Olds will be treating the game against the Royals as "just another game... we're looking to improve in every game no matter who the opponent is."

The Grizzlys get an eight-day break over the Christmas season. Their next home game is Jan. 3 at 8 p.m. when the Bonnyville Pontiacs visit.

Minor hockey results

The weekend of Dec. 6, 7 and 8 saw our Pee Wee B Team involved in a Round Robin Tournament in Sundre. With a lot of hard work and determination, the team came away with the South Division Championship.

The scores by game were Cremona 5 Sundre 2, Cremona 8 Carstairs 7, a game in which Cremona trailed 7-3 in the third period and rallied to win, Cremona 9 Didsbury 5, and Cremona 6 Sundre 1. Jared Croft emerged as the Tournament's M.V.P. collecting 12 goals and 2 assists in doing so. Congratulations on a great team effort!

Saturday, Dec. 14 had our Novice Team at home doing battle with Olds 3. The game provided everyone with great entertainment. It featured good offense and defense and some great goaltending by both teams. The 5-5 tie was fitting for such a good effort. Stacey Farquharson led the offense with 2 goals and 2 assists. Other goal-getters were Chris Kelly, Dusty Kinch and Curtis MacRae. Jared Payne had a very solid game in goal.

In Carstairs the Dynamites led early but faltered unfortunately, and Carstairs won 12-5. Dusty Ryan once more led his team offensively scoring four times, while Jesse Zinter added the additional goal. In the Cremona cage was Jason Ribi who played very well. Tough luck guys, get them next time.

Finally, a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all from Cremona.

Cremona Ringette news

The Cremona Juniors continued their torrid scoring pace on Saturday as they pummeled the hapless Strathmore Queens by a 20-3 margin.

Strathmore opened the scoring four minutes in but this only served as a wake-up call for Cremona who responded with 11 straight goals. Everyone on the team got into the point parade as indicated:

Shera Robertson (4 g. - 6a), Sherry Leask (6g. - 2a), Stacey

Kinch (4g. - 4a.), Adrienne Blain (4g. - 4a.), Wendy Leask (2g. - 2a.), Monica Russell (0g. - 4a.), Amber Havens (0g. - 3a.), Nicole Carleton (0g. - 1a.) and Jill Fournier (0g. - 1a.).

Melissa Foat had relatively easy time recording her fifth consecutive win although she was called upon to make several good stops in a penalty filled second period.

Next action will be in Sundre on Dec. 22nd.

Chris lines up on left wing for Didsbury Ramblers of the Chinook Hockey League. Last season, the 5'6", 170-pounder suited up with the Devils in the Didsbury Commercial Hockey League. Prior to that he played Midget hockey in Didsbury. Chris is a mechanic at Mountain View Motors in Didsbury.

Ramblers end losing streak

By Peter Crosby

Didsbury Ramblers broke a nine-game Chinook Hockey League losing streak with a 5-2 road victory in Hobbema last Wednesday.

But the Ramblers were quickly brought to earth on Saturday, losing 10-3 to Olds Elks at the Memorial Complex.

Didsbury improved its record to 2-10 with its come-from-behind win over the Oilers.

Trailing 2-0 entering the final period, the Ramblers erupted for five unanswered goals.

Captain Ed Krebs and Rob Brown led the way with two goals apiece, with Krebs scoring the winner on a set-up by Brown.

Defenceman Kevin Kurtz scored the fifth Didsbury goal. Bryan Lattimer chipped in with three assists, while Chris Overwater and Darcy Conley had one helper each.

Joey Potts had staked Hobbema to a 2-0 lead with a pair of second-period markers.

Marty Krebs turned in a strong game in the Didsbury goal.

On Saturday, the first-place Olds Elks roared out to a 4-0 lead in the first 20 minutes and didn't look back, holding period leads of 4-1 and 5-2.

Captain Lars Olsen scored three goals and added two assists to pace the Olds' attack.

Rick Kosik scored twice for the winners, while singles came from Boyd Laflamme, Ross Cromwell, Brian Meyan, Gord Olsen and Rob Sklaruk.

Newcomer Mark Fredine, playing his first game with the Ramblers, paid immediate dividends, scoring two goals. Alan Shields noticed the third Didsbury goal.

Krebs was bombarded with 69 shots in the Didsbury goal, including 30 in the third period.

"Marty played great in both games," said Didsbury manager Larry Tennant. "We're not giving him much help behind the blueline. A lack of defencemen is hurting."

Olds was full value for its win, added Tennant. "There's no question they have the best team in the league. They've got the size and the speed. It's a tough go against them."

Fredine is expected to suit up on a line with Brent Youngs. "He [Fredine] won't hurt us at all," said Tennant.

The Ramblers now have a three-week break before resuming play on Jan. 4 with a game at Trochu. They play in Hobbema Jan. 15. The league all-star game is scheduled for Jan. 18 at Innisfail, home of the defending league champions.

Didsbury's next home game is Jan. 19 when Olds comes to town.

"We need the time off to work on certain aspects of our game and to get some of our injured players back," said Tennant.

Ice chips: Forward Greg Laveck has been given his release so that he can return to junior action with the Carstairs Colts. Tennant said there is "nothing" to a rumor that the Ramblers will fold. "We're here to stay," he said. A Dec. 13 game at Innisfail will be rescheduled.

Congratulations Hazel

Hazel Milne of Didsbury was the winner of a $75 gift certificate from Mountain View Sports of Didsbury in The Didsbury Review's early bird subscription contest. Alan McCoy makes the presentation.

Sharks bitten

Carstairs #2 defeated Didsbury Sharks 9-6 in Didsbury Minor Hockey Association Novice play Dec. 14.

The first period showed good defence on both sides. Carstairs took a 2-0 lead on goals by Wade Ogle, assisted by Sheldon Bennett, and an unassisted goal by Jenny Jessop.

The second period started with a goal by the Sharks' Seth Leonard who went on to score three more in the period. Carstairs responded by scoring 4 goals, two by Wade Ogle, one a piece by Michael Williams, and Jenny Jessop.

The third period showed Carstairs getting goals from Wayne Wise, Sheldon Bennett and Wade Ogle. Didsbury responded with goals from Jamie McRae and Seth Leonard. Carstairs outshot Didsbury 27-25.

Didsbury was 0 for 4 on the power play while Carstairs scored three short-handed goals.

The Sharks have played five league games to date with three wins, one loss, and none tie.

Local towing company on the grow

By Peter Crosby

It hasn't taken long for Res-Q Towing of Didsbury to grow from a one-truck operation when owners Bill and Brenda Fleming got it off the ground three years ago.

Since then they've added a two-ton and three-ton trucks to their fleet.

Bill and Brenda say they've received tremendous support from Didsbury and area residents since getting the business going with a one-ton truck in September, 1988.

Because so many new cars come with fibre-glass and plastic bodies, their owners will be pleased to know that the two-ton tow truck comes with a wheel lift for damage-free towing.

The three-ton vehicle is used for hauling motor homes and trucks and there is also a car trailer.

All of the trucks are equipped with mobile phones, making for smoother, faster service.

Bill has been involved with the trucking industry for 20 years, owning highway trucks for eight years. He's been a member of the Calgary fire department for the past 21 years.

Twelve years ago, he and Brenda (she answer the phones and does all the bookkeeping) moved to Didsbury from Calgary. They have two daughters, Tammy, 17, and Terri, 14.

Brenda excels as despatcher, having spent 15 years with Alberta Government Telephones in communications and training before moving to Didsbury. She worked at Mountain View Credit Union in Didsbury for more than seven years.

Besides Bill and Brenda, Res-Q Towing employs three drivers on a part-time basis. Doug Blackie, Ken Campbell and Wayne Maitland all have many years experience in the towing business, and all have been, or were, members of the Didsbury fire department.

They are experienced in vehicle extraction and recovery, along with door unlockings.

Res-Q Towing has Alberta Motor Association contracts in Didsbury, Carstairs, and Crossfield, along with Canadian Tire Auto Service, Dominion Auto and Cross Country Motor Club of the United States.

The company features 24-hour service and have both indoor and outdoor storage facilities available.

Services include boosting, door unlocking, delivery of gas and propane to stalled vehicles, winching, car and motorcycling trailing.

AMA memberships are available any time by calling Brenda, 335-8202.

Chinook Grain involved too

"Last week's article regarding the Customer Appreciation event hosted by Parkland Agri Services (1980) Ltd. and Chinook Grain is not complete," says Tony Overwater. The article which was prepared for The Didsbury Review as a press release was accurate in so far as it pertained to the event, but failed to recognize the efforts of Chinook Grain and their staff.

"Chinook and Parkland have a close, long standing relationship," says Overwater, and "we fully intend to continue working closely together."

Although the two companies are now in separate buildings, the move was "purely from necessity," states Cal Ausenhuis of Chinook Grain. "Both companies needed extra space," adds Overwater, and "adding on to our existing office just wasn't flexible."

"Chinook's purchase of the Bates building is timely," confirmed Ausenhuis, "as it allows us room to grow, as well as an opportunity for both companies to get back together again in the future."

Parkland and Chinook Grain have shared office space since 1980, and the relationship has been very positive. "Customers have indicated they like the joint office idea," adds Overwater, and "staying together would have been more to our liking."

Parkland and Chinook have jointly sponsored the Customer Appreciation event for the last 11 years. "Last week's article was remiss when it didn't include all the work they do," says Overwater, and "we want all customers to know that."

Will Parkland and Chinook continue to work together? "Most definitely," say both

Ausenhuis and Overwater, "in fact a good combination of expertise in markets and production technology is necessary for the modern farm business."

Last week's advertisement was not complete for the charity donors, and readers should check the paper for the complete list.

Bancroft W.I. news

We met at the home of Mary McCulloch and Jean Lust for our Christmas meeting with 12 members in attendance.

We began our meeting by singing Christmas carols, roll call was to bring two dozen cookies, which we packed into 10 boxes later in the meeting to be given special people in our community.

Our objective was to pay .25 cents and .26 cents, as those are the holidays this month this went into our A.C.W.W. jar.

June Lore and Jean Lust did the hospital visit this month, including a visit to Jean Swanson, who ended up in hospital with a broken arm. Ellen Richardson and Pat VanTetering will do the visit in December.

Social Service Convenor reported taking eight bags and two boxes of clothing to the Thrift Shop.

Donations will be made to A.C.W.W. and to the office fund.

Several Christmas cards were received and we will send cards to the executive as well as to our only two charter members

Auditors were chosen and we drew names for our secret sisters for 1992. We made plans for the first of our card parties. This will be held on Monday Jan.

20th at 7:30 if the school is available. Hostesses will be Elsie Brander, Pat VanTetering and Jean McCulloch.

We then exchanged gifts and discovered who our 1991 secret sisters were. Most of us were surprised!

After a tasty lunch we packed the cookies up. Jean McCulloch had the lucky cup.

Our January meeting will be held at the home of Jean Grimes.

THERE'S NO ALTERNATIVE TO CONCRETE

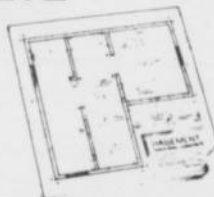

Concrete is the basement building material with all the advantages

It's a proven performer. Durable. Tough. Durable. A concrete basement will never burn or rot. And concrete is safe. Quality-controlled concrete needs no toxic chemicals which may be hazardous to building occupants.

Concrete is an energy-wise choice. A concrete basement needs little heat or air conditioning. And concrete walls are easily insulated.

Economically concrete is a good investment. A concrete basement will add years of life to the foundation and considerable dollars to the resale value of your building.

Add up the advantages. There's simply no alternative to quality-controlled concrete. The best basement building material.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

North Lone Pine W.I. news

Submitted by Christine Milne

The Christmas meeting, attended by 6 members and 4 guests, was held at the home of Evelyn Clarke, where we all gathered for a most delicious supper.

Roll call was items of baking for the Christmas boxes. Five special people receive these boxes of baked goods, while others on our list receive cards and/or gifts.

This meeting marked the 31st anniversary of our branch.

An election for a vice-president to replace Doris McWilson resulted in Judy Jackson being elected, for a one-year term. Doris gave her paper on Home Economics, titled "All About Goats." Easy and economical to raise, goats provide an excellent source of low fat, easily digested milk, an alternative to cows milk which causes allergic reactions in many children. Goat meat is also nutritious and easily digested, with lower fat and cholesterol levels than beef or pork. Doris also gave us recipes using goat cheese.

Gifts were exchanged among members.

Our next meeting at Shirley Thompson's, Jan. 21st, 9:30 a.m.

Merry Christmas to all Review readers.

of a second so-called adult housing project on the property of the Mountain View Bible College, said Monday they are concerned about the Krueger development but said it wouldn't slow their plans.

"We don't mind competition," said project development manager Glen Brower. "We are concerned about the depth of the market."

The Bible College plan calls for between 50 and 60 condos to be built.

"Hopefully the new pool and golf course will go ahead," said Brower, who works for the developer, Harvey Jager Developments Inc.

Jager is involved with a joint venture with Mountain View Bible College which is relocating to Calgary after the current school year.

Brower said drawings and specs should be completed by the end of January and a sales office open in the existing college administration building by February.

"We're focusing on a price range of under $90,000," he said.

Southwest Didsbury news

By Mrs. Bessie Eckstrand

Miss Janice Waite (daughter of Rev. Doug & Jean Waite of Didsbury), bride elect for Jan. 2nd, 1992, of John Thompson, of Calgary, was honored at a shower held at the home of Elsie Scheidt on Dec. 5th. About 15 friends and relatives attended and enjoyed the entertainment of a game, that made us put on our thinking caps. Sister Leslie of Calgary assisted in opening the many lovely gifts, to which the bride-to-be fittingly responded. Everyone admired and enjoyed the lovely Christmas decorations and bounteous lunch supplied by Elsie and daughters Carol, Loralee and friends.

Congratulations of the area go to Ellen & Henry Wilshusen on their 50th Wedding Anniversary which was held in the Didsbury Lutheran Church parlour on Sunday, Nov. 30th (real date Nov. 27, 1941). Rev. A.

Reiner performed the wedding service at the Westcott Lutheran Church. Weather was quite cold but no snow, they reported. Henry and Ellen farmed at Westcott until they retired to Didsbury in 1964. They are still very active in their church and Five-O Club. Best wishes folks for many more years of better health and happiness.

Knox U.C.W. held their Christmas party at Knox Church on Tuesday evening Dec. 10th with approximately 45 ladies and gentlemen present. President Buelah Gilson conducted an inspirational Christmas meditation and carol singing assisted by scripture readers, Pat Janzen, Beth Ooelson and Jean Waite. Then all retired to the Christian education room for a bit of entertainment under the capable direction of program convener Mrs. Erna McCafferty. This included a skit of carol singers strolling through Didsbury.

Knox Minister Travis Cannaday and wife Roxanne were presented with a hand quilted bedspread and an A.G.T. Gift Certificate from the U.C.W. ladies. All were then treated to a bounteous lunch and a number of goody boxes were packed for shut-ins.

I would like to wish a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to Gene and Ila and Brad and staff of The Review and Contemporary Graphics and to all of the Review readers.

The Way of Life

Was Jesus Born of A Virgin?

Many people today question the fact that Jesus was born of a virgin because they cannot see how this could possibly have come about. You and I cannot explain it. But, simply because we cannot explain it, is not enough reason to doubt the validity of this miraculous event.

According to the Holy Scriptures, we are distinctly told that Jesus Christ did not have an earthly Father, rather, Jesus was born of the Holy Spirit and of Mary. Jesus had an earthly mother but a heavenly Father. There can be no disputing the scriptural evidence because of its preciseness and clarity. People who choose to disbelieve the account of the virgin birth of Christ do so, not because of lack of evidence in the Word of God, but because they do not want to accept the fact that this miraculous event actually took place in that first Christmas season.

But why would anyone not want to believe the account given by God in the Bible? What are the implications to accepting the Virgin Birth of Christ?

If one accepts the record as it stands and believes in the virgin birth of Christ, then one, likewise, must believe that miracles happen. This event could not have taken place without a supernatural intervention on God's part. It took a miracle for Jesus to be born of a virgin. And some people today do not believe that miracles happen, now or back then. So, they cannot believe in the supernatural virgin birth of Christ because they cannot believe that miracles happened or do happen today.

Another reason why people refuse to accept the virgin birth of Christ is because they refuse to believe that Jesus was Divine. They say that He was only a special human being or a great teacher or prophet. But to admit that He was Deity, no way! But why would anyone not want to admit that Jesus was the Son of God making Him Deity? Again, to admit that Jesus Christ is Deity requires a response from us as far as our own belief system is concerned.

To believe that Jesus is divine, requires us to also believe that what He said is altogether true. Would Deity lie to mankind? Not unless your idea of deity is far different from mine. And so, to admit that Jesus is

OLLECH

Fred Ollech passed away suddenly Dec. 10, 1991 at his residence at the age of 67 years. He was born March 8, 1924 in Friedrichshof, Germany and immigrated with his parents to Canada at only six months.

At the age of 15 he moved to the Rimby area and worked as a local farm hand. His pay was room and board, plus friendships which are still intact today.

In 1956, Fred landed a permanent job as a steam engineer at MacMillan Blodel, divine, is to admit that what Jesus taught is true. And the crux of the whole matter lies right here. If what Jesus said and taught is altogether true, then you and I have to either reject it entirely or accept it entirely. If it is total truth, then part of it cannot be true and part false. It's all or nothing.

Where do you stand regarding your belief in the virgin birth of Christ? Do you believe it? And do you believe the entire Bible and all Jesus said? Remember you can't pick and choose what you want to believe, it's all or nothing.

I choose to believe in the virgin birth of Christ and I choose to believe in His Deity and I believe all He taught to be the truth. Won't you join me in this belief at this Christmas season and benefit from all of Christ's blessings?

Fred and Maxine retired from the farm in 1989, and settled in Didsbury. Fred always loved dancing and you would often see Maxine and him at local or Legion dances. He had a special love for the mountains and B.C., and spoke of them fondly.

Fred also loved visiting, and he spent time in local coffee shops.

From the Desk of...
JOHN GRIMSTEAD
Reeve, County of Mountain View

Christmas is sneaking up on us again and will be here almost before we can say "Charge it, please."

The year hasn't been without its trials, but generally speaking, I believe we have been successful in delivering the expected services within budget. As each year goes by and our residents' expectations of municipal services change, so we here at the County Office must change to address these expectations. Some of these changes come with a degree of pain, and most with an increased price tag. Many of these changes reflect the increased concern for our environment that perhaps should have been dealt with years ago, and other changes may be overreaction to pressures applied by a populist movement. We cannot stop the change but hopefully we can pick up that which is useful and keep our guard up against the changes that erode our quality of life.

The family unit is the thread that holds the fabric of our society together and must be protected and fostered above all. Unfortunately, economic pressures often result in families having less time to spend together.

I would encourage you to make an extra effort this Christmas to get your family and friends together as many times as you can. An old friend of mine once told me that a missed visit is something you can't catch up on, so make sure you do not miss out on a chance for a visit with your friends and family this festive season.

On behalf of the Council and Staff of the County of Mountain View, I would take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas, Good Health and Best Wishes in the New Year!

Firefighters pass course

Alzheimer support

Books were presented to the Didsbury and Olds municipal libraries last week by the Alzheimer Association of Alberta and its support groups in these towns. Their goal is to alleviate the personal and social consequences of Alzheimer disease and to promote the search for a cause and cure. The books were purchased with money contributed by local residents during Alzheimer Awareness Month last January. Another tag day is planned for January, 1992. Presenting the books in Didsbury were Rosemary Simon and Erna McCafferty.

Dear Santa,

Dear Santa,

At our house we have a party. We always have an outside Christmas. We get to open one present on Christmas Eve. We always have a feast. We give food to the Church for them, to give to people that don't have any food so they can have a Christmas too.

This year we have been thinking about helping people that don't have food. Our Church has a food bank. We put food in it. The Church sends it away to a country that doesn't have any food. In our Church we have a chart that people go to a country to tell people about God.

What I want for Christmas is a Walkman and a Barbie and a new kids doll Danny Joe and two tapes Merry Christmas by New Kids on the Block and a New Kids tape with Stop It Girl. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Connie LeBlanc, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

Our family went to Heritage Park to get our trees when we lived in Calgary, but now I don't know what we are going to do out here in Carstairs. Last year we went to someone's farm and got our Christmas trees there. I hope we can go there this year 'cause they have horses and dogs. It was nice there.

You know what Santa, on November 18, 1991 I cleaned the house well not exactly the whole house 'cause, we have a two story house and I only cleaned the two main floors. It was fun. ('Cause I like cleaning up the house.)

Oh and I would like to have some more Barbies, Barbie clothes, some more Barbie equipment and that's all that I can think of.

Yours truly,
Leah Howson, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

At our house we open a present on Christmas Eve. We put our tree up in the first week of Christmas of December and decorate it. Last year my sisters said that I was sleeping on my hands, butt sticking up. This year my mom doesn't get off work till seven o'clock so we won't have to wait for her to get up.

This year I watched my next door neighbor's little son because he didn't want to go to Airdrie.

Santa, for Christmas I would like to have Wayne Gretzky rookie card, 20 packs of hockey cards, a Brett Hull rookie card, A mini typhoon racer, California games, Winter games, Summer games, A new pair of runners size 2 1/2, clothes, a watch, Jimmy Key rookie card, Kelly Huber rookie card, a Game Boy, Baseball cube and 20 single card holders. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Ricky Wilson, Grade 4B

Dear Santa,

At our house we have a great time before we go and get our Christmas tree and hang up our stockings by the fireplace.

When it was Christmas night my mom said, "Time to go to bed." Then she said, "If you guys don't go to bed, Santa will not come." So we went to bed and Santa did come.

I want a little Miss Make-up, Getto roller skates, a Game Boy, little Miss Singing Mermaid and a C.D. player. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Tera Yousph, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

In my family we have a custom on Christmas Eve we get one present and open it and we leave the rest for Christmas Day.

I invited my cousin over yesterday and he did not want to come.

I want a Tri-moto, a guard and my Skidoo fixed and I want a dirt bike.

Dear Santa,

At my house on Christmas Eve my family gathers together and we sing songs sometimes. In the night my mom and dad like to put treats and presents in our stockings and at midnight they put them in our rooms. In the morning we have a stocking meeting.

Yesterday my mom had to go visit some people and my sister Sarah was the oldest kid there and she was at a friends house so I babysat for her.

What I want for Christmas is my own pack of Ono cards, the toy Robinhood, the toy Bucky Ohare, a toy gun and a toy sword.

Yours truly,

Dear Santa,

At my house, a couple of weeks before Christmas, we go get a tree. Then decorate it with lights and balls. On Christmas morning we have brunch with family, then open presents. On the night of Christmas Day we go to church. On Boxing Day we go to Grandmas and I get to babysit.

I do lots of good things like babysitting, helping, doing chores and things like that.

I want a magic nursery baby, roller blades, magic copier, a Nintendo or a Game Boy with some games and of course new clothes.

Thaw, stuff, store Christmas turkey safely

Your kitchen may be the weakest link in the food safety chain, and one of the times when cooks should take special care is with their Christmas turkey says an Alberta Agriculture food specialist.

"There are a lot of food poisoning hazards if you don't thaw, stuff, cook or store turkey properly," says Linda St. Onge of the home economics branch. "so to keep everyone's holiday dining experience pleasurable, follow some simple rules in preparing your turkey."

St. Onge says there are four safe ways to thaw a turkey. The bird can be thawed in the refrigerator, placing the turkey on a tray to catch water. Allow about 10 hours per kilogram of meat for thawing. Thawing is also safe in cold water if the turkey is put in a water tight bag or container, she says. Allow two hours per kilogram for complete thawing. A turkey can also be thawed in the microwave, using the manufacturer's instructions.

"You can also thaw your turkey at room temperature if you follow special precautions. Insulate the turkey in a tightly closed heavy brown paper bag or with a thick layer of newspaper or towels. An insulated, covered cooler also works. This insulation allows the turkey to thaw at a cold enough temperature to maintain food safety," she says. With this method, allow three hours per kilogram for thawing.

Two other tips on thawing are: keep the frozen turkey in its original plastic wrap with any of the thawing methods; and, once the turkey is thawed, keep it refrigerated and cook within 48 hours.

The next step is stuffing the turkey, and stuffing can cause problems if not properly handled. "Stuffing should be cooked separately from the bird for maximum safety. Because warm stuffing creates an ideal environment for bacterial growth, its presence in the bird can be hazardous before, during and after the turkey is cooked," she says.

If stuffing is cooked in a separate casserole dish, add extra liquid so it will be moist enough to stick together. Add 25 millilitres (ml) [two tablespoons] of liquid for each 250 to 375 ml (one to one-and-a-half cups) of dressing. Removing some of the juices from the turkey's roasting pan is a good choice she says. The casserole stuffing should be cooked in the oven for the last half hour of roasting time.

On the other hand, if you prefer to stick with the traditionally stuffed bird, St. Onge has some advice. "Remember stuffing can only be done safely just before the turkey is popped into the oven. Never stuff a turkey the night before roasting or before freezing the bird."

Once the turkey is cooked, immediately remove all the stuffing. If stuffing isn't removed it may stay warm long enough for bacteria to contaminate the leftover turkey and stuffing. Leftover stuffing must be refrigerated and used within three days.

The best roasting temperature is 325 degrees F. (160 degrees C). Higher temperatures cause protein toughening and shrinkage. Lower temperatures aren't recommended because naturally present bacteria might not be killed.

"Once the turkey has started roasting it must be completely cooked before removing from the oven," St. Onge says. The turkey can be covered with a loose tent of aluminum foil. During the last half hour of cooking, remove foil to baste and allow the bird to brown.

The most reliable way to test "doneness" is with a meat thermometer. An internal thigh muscle temperature of 185 degrees F (85 degrees C) indicates the turkey is cooked. The internal temperature of stuffing should be at least 165 degrees F (74 degrees C).

After cooking, keep the turkey hot, above 140 degrees F (60 degrees C) or refrigerate at below 40 degrees F (4 degrees C). The turkey shouldn't be left at room temperature for longer than two hours.

Add a "secret" ingredient to holiday baking

Of all holiday traditions, perhaps none is quite so enduring (and endearing) as baking cookies. The lingering aromas of "sugar 'n spice and everything nice" tend to transport us back to childhood and the comfort that enveloped us upon stepping into the kitchen, chilled and hungry after playing in the winter air.

The nutrition experts at Gerber Products Company have long recognized that their baby foods are well suited as ingredients in family recipes. Gerber cereals in particular can be used in many creative ways and are an ideal ingredient in cookie recipes.

The addition of any of the Gerber iron-fortified, no-salt-added cereals to family recipes produces a nutritious, iron-rich, and delicious product.

When preparing your list of cookie "must makes" for this year's gift giving, cookie exchange and family consumption, consider adding some of the following to your cookie recipe collection.

All are simple to make with a minimum of ingredients and can, of course, be enjoyed any time throughout the year.

CHOCOLATE OATMEAL GOODIES

- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup Gerber Oatmeal
- 1 1/2 cups brown sugar, packed
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup margarine, softened
- 1 package (12-oz.) chocolate chips
- 1 can (14-oz.) sweetened condensed milk
- 2 tablespoons margarine
- 1 cup nuts, chopped
- 2 teaspoons vanilla

Preheat oven to 350° F. In large bowl, combine flour, oatmeal, brown sugar, baking soda, and salt. Cut in margarine until crumbs are formed. Press 3/4 of crumbs into greased 13x9-inch pan.

Combine chocolate chips, milk, and margarine in saucepan and place over low heat, stirring occasionally, until chips are melted. Remove from heat and add nuts and vanilla; mix well.

Spread over crust. Sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Bake for 30 minutes.

Cool completely and cut into bars.
Yield: 24 bars

BITS 'N PIECES COOKIES

- 1/2 cup butter or margarine, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup Gerber Barley Cereal

- 1/2 cup flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 6-oz. package chocolate chips
- 1/2 cup nuts, chopped
- 1/2 cup currants

HOLIDAYS ARE AN IDEAL TIME to introduce children to the pleasure of cookie making. Gerber cereals in cookies add flavor and enhance the nutritive value of baked goods.

Dear Santa,
At our house we usually go to church and after that we sing until it is dark. Then when we get ready for bed. We are allowed to open only one present. My sister and I pick the biggest one and open it. Last year I got a bear, that was on Christmas Eve.

On my birthday I had it in Calgary anyway. I helped my dad and his girl friend make the cake and it was fun and they gave me a Mickey Mouse watch that sings a Micky song.

On Christmas if you are not busy I would like a giant teddy bear with a red bow and I would like a Wrinkles puppy with a bone that says Wrinkles on it and most of all I want my mom and dad to get back together.

Thank you Santa, bye!

A Royal Birthday

Birthdays were always special days,
In our family for ages back,
Whether in a house or cottage,
Or in just a one room shack.

Mother always made a cake,
And gave a little present too,
To remind us we were special,
And would start another year anew.

Of course there was a special birthday,
No one ever dared forget.
It seemed to come in the coldest weather
But that didn't make us fret.

For you see it was Christ's birthday.
So all of us would celebrate,
Putting on an amateur programe,
We did our best at any rate.

The school house was packed with parents,
Mostly farmers and their wives.
With our poems and plays and singing,
We were having the time of our lives.

After the programe was finally over,
Bags of candy, pop corn and such,
Were handed out by Santa Claus,
Who gave it just a special touch.

All the children got one present,
That was all parents could afford.
But we were happy just the same,
Celebrating the birthday of our Lord.

Christmas time must be a bore,
For those who don't believe at all,
In a babe born in a manger,
In a little donkey's stall.

Or how the angels came from heaven,
Singing songs that cold dark night.
Telling shepherds, Jesus was born,
Who would fill the world with light.

If you don't believe the shepherds,
Came and saw the little babe,
Wrapped in swaddling warm clothes,
In a manger snugly laid.

Then of course Christmas means nothing,
To some friends of mine of course.
All the spirit of love and sharing,
From your souls you must divorce

When you hear the Christmas carols,
Sung with zest and with some glee,
They must really make you sadder
To see those happy and so free.

If you don't believe in Jesus
And His wonderous miracle birth,
Who was born of a lowly virgin,
Who lived and died upon this earth.

Then Christmas must be just a humbug
To you and all of your kin;
So you pass it bye with a big sigh,
And wish it had never been.

Well, I for one am glad for Christmas,
When we can celebrate Christ's birth.
For it helps to brighten the darkest days,
And brings some peace to this troubled earth.

It makes us take time to send best wishes,
To our loved ones near and far,
Wrapping presents and sending them gifts,
To less fortunate folks than we are.

So let us, who believe, be joyful,
Let's fill our days with songs of praise.
Let the world know why we are happy,
And help them too, to brighten their days.

Many folks around us are hungry,
For food as well as for love,
Let us who believe this Christmas
Give them the things they're in need of.

Lets give of our time and our money,
And show them how we really feel
Give with a smile and go the extra mile,
Then they'll know that the Christ of Christmas is real.

Dear Santa,

Dear Santa,

I am going to tell you about the Custom my family has at Christmas. On Christmas Eve we sit in the living room and read stories about Christ and his birth, then we go bed. In the morning we have to wait in our room's till everyone's awake then we all go into the livingroom at once. Then we empty our stockings and eat breakfast. After breakfast we open our gifts.

I did some good things this year, like getting my little sister dressed, letting my brother ride my bike and helping with the house chores.

They're meany things I want for Christmas but nothing I need and I'm usually happy with what I get.

P.S. Thanks for the gifts I got last year!

Yours truly,
Heather Wilde, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

At our house sometimes we decorate our Christmas tree on Christmas Eve. But last year and most of the other years we put up our tree a week early. We hang up our stockings on Christmas Eve. Our Christmas dinner is on Christmas Eve sometimes. My brother and I are the first ones to get up. A rule is that when you get up you don't open presents. You just look in your stocking.

I have been sorta good this year. One good thing is that I helped my mom shop for groceries.

Well I hope that I'm not asking for too much this year. I mostly want crafts. Here's my list, felt art, sponge art, painting, calligraphy set, any Barbies, a Barbie house and a Game Boy. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Kristen Seens, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

At our house I go to my dad's house on the Christmas weekend. We have a feast at my Aunt Anne's on Christmas Eve. We bring some cabbage soup home for my dad because he doesn't come. Then on Christmas before everyone comes, my sisters and I open a present. Then when everyone comes, we open the rest of our presents. Then my dad takes us and our presents home and we open presents there. Then at night everyone comes over and I open presents again. Then we play with our stuff and we have dinner.

I'm good when I make the lunches for my mom when she is still at school. I think I'm good in school, because I get good marks. I'm good at home because when my mom asks me to do something, I do it. I'm good at my dad's, because I do things he tells me to, even if I don't want to.

Santa may I please have one of these things, a Barbie, a big doll, some paper, Garth Brooks tape, a picture or sticker book, a Robin Hood movie. Santa I have lots of things I want, but I don't want to name them all. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Caitlyn Depper, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

Dear Santa, At our house we get up really early in the morning to see if Santa has come.

We usually open our presents after supper and one before supper so we don't get bored.

We have a party at night to celebrate the Lord's Birthday.

I think I have been pretty good lately because I help my mom with my sisters. (Help clean house.)

What I want for Christmas is a new cookbook, shoes, a piano and some new clothes.

Yours truly,
Amanda Way, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

On Christmas Eve we stay home and have some people at our house. We have a big dinner and after we have a pie. On Christmas Day we hand out our Christmas presents.

I have been good to my mom, dad and my sister. I have been good to my teacher.

For Christmas I want Bret hitman Hearts sunglasses, Robin Hood, Xmen tapes, a CD player, WWF figures, a Chip and Pepper t-shirt and a Game Boy.

Yours truly,
Trevor McWilliam, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Town of Didsbury

Dear Santa,

We don't celebrate Christmas, but we celebrate Eid, there are two Eids one is a big Eid, the other one is a small Eid. The small Eid comes first we used to invite everyone from the mosque on the big Eid but now we don't. The small Eid is in April. The big Eid is in June or July, I forget which one.

One Saturday I made breakfast for my mom and when she came down her breakfast was almost ready. The rest of the day I helped my mom with the work.

I hope you enjoy your holidays.

Yours truly,

Kashmala Qureshi, Grade 4B

Yes, Virginia, There Is a Santa Claus

from the New York Sun, September 21, 1897

Almost a hundred years ago, a young girl wrote this letter to a newspaper. The answer, written by Francis Pharcellus Church, has become a Christmas classic.

Dear Editor—I am 8 years old. Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Papa says, "If you see it in the Sun, it's so." Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?

Virginia O'Hanlon

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exists, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are seen and unseeable in the world.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Dear Santa,

Dear Santa,

For Christmas we look in our stockings then we eat breakfast then open our presents and go to my Grandma and Grandpa's and open more presents, and eat dinner and supper and then we go home.

My mom was sick she wasn't supposed to go down to the barn but I did it for her.

I would like a pellet gun for Christmas. Thank you.

Yours truly,
David Klys, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

At our house we always go to church and then we come home and then go to Grandmas and then we eat our Christmas Eve Dinner there. Then we come home and open our presents but we leave our stockings for Christmas.

Once my mom had a sore neck and she had to babysit a girl named Alana, so I babysat her and my mom went upstairs to rest.

Santa can I please have a few books, some posters and clothes? Thanks.

Yours truly,
Olivia Friesen, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

On Christmas I always wake up and rush into the living room and wait until everybody wakes up and when they come in we open presents.

On November 17th my mom had a surprise birthday and we had lots of fun but it was not her birthday. November 19th is her birthday.

What I want for Christmas is yo-yo, My Walking Kitty and a dog which I'm not allowed to have.

Yours truly,
Lindsay Beckner, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

This year we are going to my Grampa and Grandma's house for Christmas. We are going to have dinner then we are going to church. When we get home we will go to bed and when we get up we'll open our presents then later we will have another dinner.

On Monday I shared a swing with some other kids.

This year I would like a pair of flash tracks and a box of hockey cards.

Yours truly,
Cameron Martens, Grade 4B
Hugh Sutherland School

Dear Santa,

On Christmas at our house the first thing we do is we discuss what Christmas is about out of the Bible. Then we go to church. Then we go to Camroose for Christmas.

On my mom's birthday I bought her a locket necklace.

For Christmas I would like some packs of baseball cards, a new cowboy hat, a model airplane, and some pistachios. Thank you.

Yours truly,
Kevin Bessey, Grade 4B

Dear Santa,

At our house we go and cut a tree and come home and put it up. Then we decorate it with our stuff.
